Teacher Assistant

Part-Time

Position Summary

We are seeking a Part-Time Teacher Assistant to support a classical Christian primary classroom committed to the formation of young students in wisdom, virtue, and wonder. This role is essential in sustaining an orderly, attentive, and nurturing learning environment in which students can thrive.

The Teacher Assistant supports the lead teacher in cultivating habits of attention, respect, and diligence. This is not merely a support role for classroom logistics, but a formative presence in the daily life of young students—helping reinforce the habits and culture of a structured, joyful classroom.

Key Responsibilities

Instruction & Learning Foundations

- Assist the lead teacher in daily instructional activities across literacy, numeracy, and foundational subjects
- Support small group work, individual practice, and guided reading or math activities
- Help reinforce lesson expectations, directions, and routines
- Provide additional support for students needing extra guidance or pacing adjustments
- Assist with preparation and organization of classroom materials and learning spaces

Classroom Culture & Formation

- Help maintain a calm, orderly, and attentive classroom environment
- Reinforce expectations for listening, respect, and focused work
- Model appropriate speech, posture, and attentiveness for students
- Support consistent routines and transitions throughout the school day

Student Support

- Encourage students in habits of perseverance, care, and responsibility
- Provide gentle correction and reinforcement under the direction of the lead teacher
- Support the development of early literacy, numeracy, and learning habits
- Offer encouragement that builds confidence and steadiness in young learners

School Culture & Collaboration

- Work closely with the lead teacher to ensure continuity of classroom expectations and rhythms
- Participate in faculty formation opportunities as available
- Contribute to the shared life and culture of the school community

Candidate Profile

Essential Qualities

- High school diploma required; bachelor's degree preferred or in progress
- Commitment to Christ-centered, classical education
- Warm, steady, and attentive presence with young children
- Ability to follow direction and support a structured classroom environment
- Strong relational awareness and patience in guiding student behavior
- Desire to contribute to habit formation and character development
- Alignment with a disciplined, joyful school culture

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience working with children in a classroom, tutoring, or childcare setting
- Familiarity with early literacy and numeracy support strategies
- Ability to work collaboratively in a multi-adult classroom environment
- Interest in classical education or willingness to learn its methods and rhythms

Classroom Ethos

The assistant serves as a stabilizing and formative presence in the classroom. The environment is orderly, warm, and purposeful. Students are guided toward attentiveness and responsibility through consistent expectations and steady encouragement.

This role supports a classroom culture where learning is quiet, focused, and joyful—built on habits rather than stimulation.

Schedule & Compensation

- Part-time position during the academic year
- Schedule aligned with classroom needs and school calendar
- Compensation based on experience and role scope
